Dear Ruth:

Thank you for your letter relative to the meeting of the S.E. Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries. As I mentioned the last time I saw you, the latter part of August is always a bad time for me, for that is when it is most convenient for me to take my vacation. This time particularly I am already committed to being somewhere else. If my plans should change, I shall certainly let you know.

You make me feel like a dog for not being around. However if there is anything I can do before the middle of August to be of any help, I shall be glad to oblige.

Sincerely yours,

Helen Gray Gillam
Law Librarian
